Dear Corporate Level Investment Partner:

The Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance (IMA) of Greater Dallas & Vicinity is thrilled to announce our 60th Annual IMA Human Relations Banquet, set for 7:00 p.m. on Friday, February 6, 2026 in the Grand Pavilion Ballroom at Dallas Trade Mart, 2100 North Stemmons Freeway. This isn't just an event—it's a celebration of community, collaboration, and extraordinary achievements.

Get ready for some key highlights! We'll present the prestigious IMA Human Relations Award and Dr. C.A.W. Clark Prince of Preachers Award, which traditionally honor an iconic leader in civic or business endeavors and a distinguished clergy mentor. Plus, we're showcasing IMA's college scholarship assistance program, helping pave the way for our future leaders.

But that's not all. We will spotlight individuals who have made exceptional contributions to education, philanthropy, clergy, civic and social services, healthcare, and business.

We would be honored to have (your company/corporation/organization) partner with us at any appropriate sponsorship level. Please find the attached sponsorship investment opportunities for your consideration. Kindly make your check payable to Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance (IMA) and mail it to PO Box 671209 Dallas, TX 75367-1209. An IMA representative will follow up on this request.

Thank you for your generous support and for investing in our community. Together, we can create a lasting impact.

Partnering In Community Service,

Dr. David Wilson

IMA President

Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance (IMA) of Greater Dallas

The IMA has a long-standing history of leadership, civic involvement, and program activity throughout the communities of the Dallas metroplex. The IMA – comprised of ministers of Dallas area churches – has a mission:

To improve, enhance, and maintain quality of life for underserved communities by promoting education, scholarships, community and economic development, physical and mental health, employment, and other community uplift initiatives through the distribution of philanthropic funds.

For over 50 years, providing health referrals, maintaining food pantries to help feed the needy, assisting with utility bills, ministering to the incarcerated, and other support services have been critical elements of IMA's mission.

60th Annual IMA Human Relations Banquet Overview

This annual banquet, which has more than 1,000 participants, educates public officials, corporations, and individuals about IMA's goals, programs, and mission and affords several partnering opportunities. Besides helping offset the cost of providing community support services, IMA awards scholarships to deserving college-bound high school graduates throughout its service area each year. This is a crucial investment in our youth and our future.

This stellar event will feature:

- Presentation of the Prince of Preachers Award in honor of Dr. C.A.W. Clark, a long-time national and local civic and religious leader.
- IMA Business Award, awarded to an entrepreneur who demonstrates concern and compassion for the community in their endeavor to pursue the American dream.
- The President's Award, presented to the recipient(s) who reflect leadership in sharing their time, resources, and talent to help strengthen the community.
- Our newly established Craig Watkins Justice Award will go to another individual serving in the area of law who exhibits a model of fairness, justice, and equality
- The IMA Human Relations Award is the signature award given each year to an exemplary civic, business, or religious leader with a philanthropic heart who has made a measurable difference, serving the community with distinction and impact.
